

STATE-OF-THE-SCIENCE SUMMIT

September 26, 2019

Jane Addams Hull House
800 South Halsted Street
Chicago, Illinois

Featuring presentations on evidence-based interventions and system reforms to promote self-direction, integrated health care, and employment.

UIC Center on Integrated Health Care & Self-Directed Recovery
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
AT CHICAGO

<https://www.center4healthandsdc.org/>

Breakfast, 9:00-9:30am

Welcome, 9:30-10:00am

Judith A. Cook, PhD, Director, Center on Integrated Health Care & Self-Directed Recovery, University of Illinois at Chicago

Leslie J. Caplan, PhD, Acting Associate Director, Office of Research Sciences, National Institute on Disability, Independent Living, and Rehabilitation Research, Administration for Community Living, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Advancing Mental Health Care through Dynamic Translation of Evidence-Based Rehabilitation Science, 10:00-11:00am

Judith A. Cook, PhD, Director, Center on Integrated Health Care & Self-Directed Recovery, University of Illinois at Chicago

Augmenting & Innovating Evidence-Based & Promising Employment Services to Increase Vocational Recovery among People with Psychiatric Conditions, 11:00-12:00pm

Sally Rogers, ScD, Executive Director, and Marianne Farkas, ScD, Director of TDTA, Center for Psychiatric Rehabilitation, Boston University

Lunch & Self-Tour of Hull House Museum, 12:00-1:30pm

Infusing Youth Voices in Research & Moving from a Goal of Employment to Careers, 1:30-2:30pm

Mary Ann Davis, PhD, Director, Transitions to Adulthood Center for Research, University of Massachusetts

Stretch & Snack Break, 2:30-2:45pm

Braiding Three Strands: Common Factors/Common Elements, Peer-Delivered Services & Effective Training, 2:45-3:45pm

Janet Walker, PhD, Regional Research Institute, Portland State University

Advancing Our Understanding of Inclusion & Participation through Innovative Research Methods & "Influencer" Translation Strategies, 3:45-4:45pm

Mark Salzer, PhD, Collaborative for Community Inclusion, Temple University

Wrap Up: Looking to the Future, 4:45-5:00pm

Judith A. Cook, PhD, Director, Center on Integrated Health Care & Self-Directed Recovery, University of Illinois at Chicago